Mission

The Common Council's mission is to represent the residents of Madison by promoting the safety, health, and general well-being of the community by incorporating the following city core values:

- Equity - Committed to fairness, justice, and equal outcomes for all.
- Civic Engagement - Commitment to transparency, openness and inclusivity. We will protect freedom of expression and engagement.
- Well-Being - Committed to creating a community where all can thrive and feel safe.
- Shared Prosperity - Dedicated to creating a community where all are able to achieve economic success and social mobility.
- Stewardship - Caring for our natural, economic and social resources.

Overview

Alders represent the City's 20 aldermanic districts and are led by a Council President and President Vice President who are elected annually in the spring.

The Office of the Common Council is created by Madison General Ordinances 3.035. The Common Council Chief of Staff is appointed by the Common Council and reports to the Common Council Executive Committee.

Karen Kapusta-Pofahl, Common Council Chief of Staff
